FOREWORD

1727426

THE following history and geanology was secured and compiled as follows: 1st---From the records set out in the old (1870) Victor family bible; this bible is still in the family. An older bible containing other dates of the earlier births, marriages and records was destroyed by cyclone on the old Jacob Victor homestead near Gardner, Kans. in 1870.

2nd---From abstracts, from records of vital statistics obtained by the compiler, thru correspondence.

3rd---Oral, written by Robert W. Victor, (youngest son of Jacob Victor) in 1918, and given to his son Earl Z. Victor, of Salida, Colo., which oral history follows herewith.

"John Victor, David Victor, Jacob Victor, (3 brothers) Serepta Victor and another sister, name unknown, born of German parents in Penn., moved to Greensberg, Green County, Ky. in 1818.

Wallace Victor, a son of John was killed at the battle of Pittsburg Landing an engagement of the Civil War while in command of the Union Army; Tip MacLean a cousin of Wallace Victor succeeded in command and was also killed in same engagement.

Serepta Victor married a man by the name of Barber and lived in Saline County, Mo., no record of death. The other sister (name unknown) married the father of Jacob Elmore of Mason City, Illinois (no record of death, also no record of death of John Victor.)

No record of death of David Victor, except that he is buried in an unmarked grave in old Victor family lot at Gardner, Kans.; a daughter Mary Victor, married Henry Kirby; is buried as last stated above. died May 29, 1917.

ERRATA

WALTER I. VICTOR, 7th child of Jacob Victor and Clara Graham served in Civil War Co. J. 12th Kans. Inf. as Richard Victor.

MOLLIE GUTHRIE was 1st wife of Columbus C. Victor instead of 2nd wife as shown on page 3 of record. It appears that record page 3 relative to first wife of Columbus C. Victor being buried near Weston, Mo. is in error. The compiler has been unable to verify same; which was furnished by a relative. Decendants are asked to correct THEIR copies of the record in accordance with information they may have.

Where a blank (-----) appears in the record, the compiler has been unable to obtain the information. Descendants involved are asked to fill in the information that is lacking that THEIR copy may be complete.
